

Bridge Disability Ministries 2013 Annual Report

Reflections on God's Blessings, by Dan Coppin, Board Chair

Our Mission

Because Bridge Disability Ministries honors the God-given dignity of people with disabilities, we build relationships to alleviate isolation and enrich our churches and communities.

I know I shouldn't be surprised, but I nearly always look back on a year surprised by the sheer quantity and inexplicable nature of God's blessings. Surely for Bridge Ministries, that was the case in 2013.

First, He blessed us with meaningful work. All of our ministries – Spiritual Care, Mobility and Guardianship – are healthy and growing. Our Spiritual Care Ministry rolled out a new family spiritual retreat program – the Spectrum Respite Retreats that gave parents of youth with autism a much needed break and provided a model for faith communities who want to help these families. Distributions of mobility equipment through our Meyer Mobility Center grew an astounding 39% last year, compelling us to take additional warehouse space to support the demand. And our Guardianship Agency is serving more people through new services such as case management and trusteeship.

Second, He blessed us with caring and committed workers. Our staff and literally hundreds of volunteers form the heart of our ministries. In 2013, volunteers donated over 10,000 hours of time to Bridge Ministries. We were also blessed by the calling of Brenne Schario as Bridge's new Executive Director. We hope that all of our supporters have a chance to meet Brenne in the coming year.

Third, He blessed us with wonderful people to work for. Every day we come in contact with people who seek to experience God's love through relationship with individuals and church communities. And every day we meet people in practical need of durable medical equipment and compassionate and loving guardianship services. We are called to serve, but always find ourselves blessed by these relationships.

And finally, He blessed us with hundreds of financial supporters – listed here in this annual report - whose generosity helped us to achieve a surplus in 2013, the first surplus we've had in several years. This good financial news will help us restore some of the reserves we've expended in recent years and help us to grow our ministries in 2014.

To all of our generous volunteers and financial supporters, thank you! Our prayer is that God has blessed you as generously as He blessed Bridge Ministries in 2013.
