Part IV, line 1b:

Bridge Ministries is the only agency in King County dedicated exclusively to supporting adults with developmental disabilities. Guardianship services provide oversight in financial, medical, and legal matters, ensuring that some of the most vulnerable members of our community have someone on their side.

Our staff and agency are certified by the Washington State certified professional guardianship board and appointed by the Supreme Court of Washington State to oversee the care and affairs of our clients.

We offer supportive services to clients in King County with developmental disabilities from birth, and their families, to assist with areas such as housing, finances, personal and medical care. We work very closely with our clients to ensure they are treated fairly and with respect while being cared for in the highest regard. Our staff is motivated by faith-based values, serving all people, affirming the dignity and worth of every person.

Additions and disbursements disclosed do not include gains or losses in managed trustee accounts, but the balances are fair market value.
